

Company Description

The Vintage Vest Company will be the only company in the United States that will market itself as a specialty vest company whose purpose is to provide distinguished vest styles to the large community of people that celebrate Music, Freedom, & Country (MFC).

Throughout history the vest has embodied the attributes of the human spirit that The Vintage Vest Company likes to celebrate the most. From some of the finest Rock N Roll musicians in history to the hard driving pioneers that settled the western frontier, the individuals that donned the vest were mavericks that made their lives happen against many odds.

Today the vest continues to embody the greatest attributes of the human spirit in a very classy and distinguishable way. The Vintage Vest Co. will offer classy designs that express the energy that our customers have for their passions in life as well as the courage, work ethic and professional dedication that is required to make them happen.
